

Free Professional Development

History of European Antisemitism

The Holocaust is an incredibly important topic for school curriculum. But often, students are left with an unclear picture of how antisemitism developed, long before the Holocaust took place. This session helps students and teachers better understand that complex and nuanced history and also helps build connections between historical and modern forms of antisemitism.

Supports the following NC standards: 7.H.1 and WH.H.1.1
Analyze historical events and issues in world history from a variety of perspectives.

Participants will earn 2 CEUs for participation in this 2-hour learning event.

Date & Time:

February 20, 2024 | 4:00-6:00PM

Register here

Questions? Email Dori Gerber, Director of Professional Learning at ICS: dgerber@icsresources.org

Institute for Curriculum Services

North Carolina Department of PUBLIC INSTRUCTION